*If you do not receive benefits or are under the age of 60, the loans are subject to financial assessment, affordability and a satisfactory credit check.

Energy efficiency improvements

Many people have poor quality boilers, radiators or heating systems, making it expensive to heat their homes.

Our loans can fund new boilers, radiators and heating systems which will make your home warmer and could reduce your heating bills.

Our loans could be a cheaper alternative to buying boilers and heating improvements using a finance deal provided by heating companies.

What's more, in many cases the cost of loan repayments could be covered by the money saved on heating bills - and with the added reassurance of the reliability of a new boiler or system.

Essential repairs and improvements

From time to time things go wrong in our home. This could be anything from a roofing repair to a failed damp proof course, and when an emergency happens there might not be the cash available to carry out the work.

There are also times when our homes may need improvements, such as replacement windows or external doors.

Our loans could be much cheaper than finance deals offered by companies who would carry out such work, and you could spread the cost of this over up to 5 years.
