

Summary of key findings

All Children and Young People (C&YP) within the Wakefield District who have Special Education Needs and Disabilities were invited to tell us about Short Breaks and what type of activities they would like to be able to do in the future. There were 102 responses from C&YP.

Age range of children and young people who replied to questionnaire

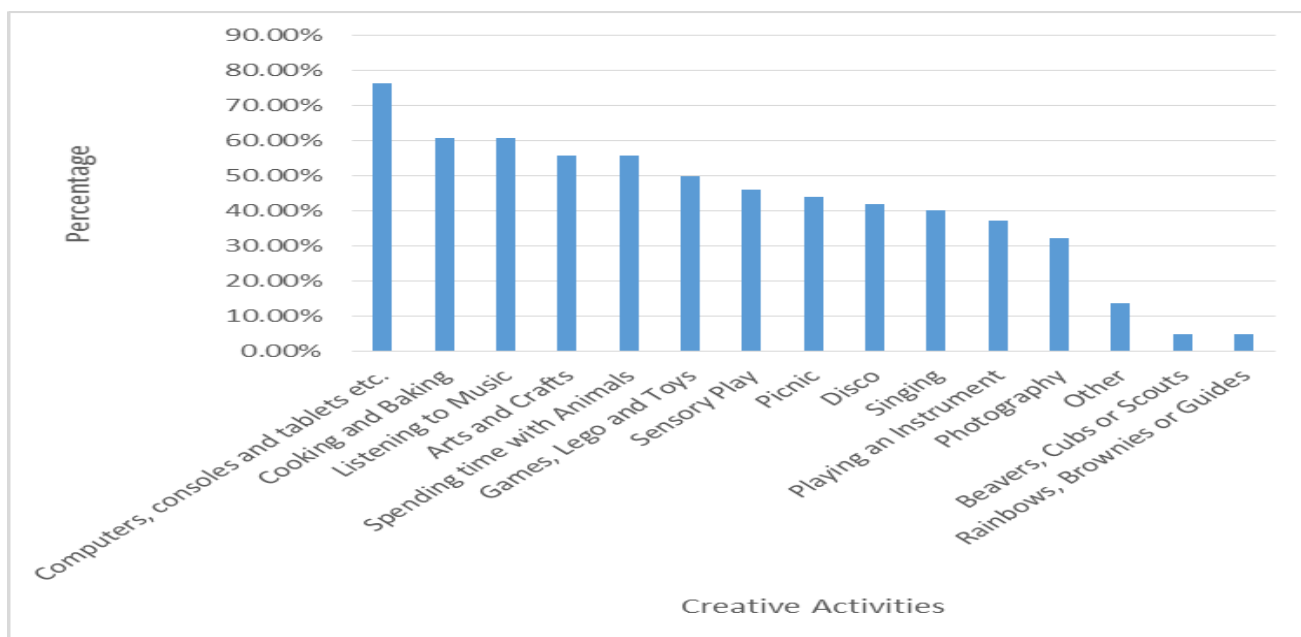

Activities that children and young people would like to be able to do after school or in the school holidays?

The five most popular activities are: Swimming, Trampolining, Bowling, Playing in the Park and Walks.

What type of creative activities would C&YP like to be able to do after school or in the school holidays?

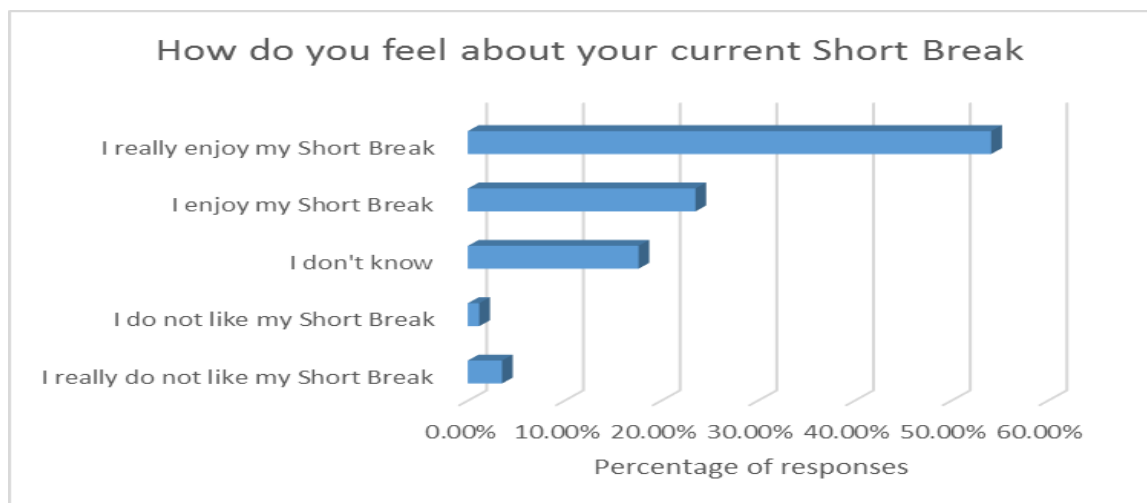

The top 5 creative activities confirmed by C&YP are Computer, consoles and tablets etc, Cooking and Baking, Listening to Music, Arts and Crafts and spending time with Animals.

What type of event C&YP would like to be able to go to after school or in the school holidays.

The feedback received from C&YP engagement shows that the top 3 most popular events that C&YP would like to be able to go to is Film, Music and Pantomime.

How C&YP feel about their current Short Break or activities?

Type of Short Break activities currently accessed

The feedback received from C&YP engagement shows that the most popular Short Break activity currently accessed is after school / weekend group activities.

Trying a new activity

C&YP main person to ask about trying a new activity would be their mum/dad followed by school and their worker.