2. How we use your data:

Wakefield Council collects, processes and stores personal information about you in order to assess claims for Local Welfare Provision.

We collect information from you when you fill in one of our forms, or contact us about your circumstances, either in writing, over the phone or face-to-face in our customer contact centre.

We may sometimes obtain information about you from third parties (including landlords, DWP and other Council departments) where this is necessary in order to administer claims for Local Welfare Provision.

We collect personal, financial and sensitive data about you, including your name, address, nationality, NINO, date of birth, bank details, financial information, income, rent costs, information about any disabilities and health, details about your household makeup and circumstances including your dependent children and anyone else who lives with you.

The Council sometimes works with third-parties to deliver certain services or carry out statutory functions on our behalf. Where this is the case, we may share your personal information with these third-parties. We will always ensure that your information is kept secure, only used for these purposes and not disclosed further unless required by law.

We may also share your information with other Council services in order to ensure our records are accurate and up-to-date, to improve the standard of the services we deliver, and to perform any of our statutory duties.

Your personal data will be treated with the strictest confidence, and only accessible to those who need to access it for the above purposes. We have a data protection regime in place to oversee the effective and secure processing of your personal information, and also utilise appropriate technical safeguards to keep your information secure.

We will not share your information with any other organisations unless required to do so by law.

Should you decide not to provide any of the information we request from you, we will be unable to make a decision on your application.

3. What authority does the Council have to collect and use this information?

We collect and use your personal information in order to comply with a legal obligation (GDPR Article 6).

We use your personal information in order to administer the Local Welfare Provision. The processing of your information is necessary under the Welfare Reform Act 2012 regulations.

4. How long will we keep your data?

We will only keep your information for as long as it is required by us or other regulatory bodies in order to comply with legal and regulatory requirements or for other operational reasons. In most cases this will be a minimum of 6 years and we are required to keep some data indefinitely.

5. Your rights and your personal data
